

- Leading innovator of California Fine Art Clay movement that grew up around Peter Voukos “pot shop” at Otis art institute and the University of California, Berkeley.
- Works decorated with imagery often with satirical or humorous intent”.
- “Frimkess, an unpretentious artist who was self absorbed with his work and in his relationships.” (M. Agron)